To whom it may concern:

Dear Sir/Ms,

The purpose of the letter is to provide support and a character reference for Mr. Andre Parvenu, whom I've known since his early childhood years.

I am a retired military officer and a former senior program manager for Motorola Inc. and Rockwell Collins Inc. In these positions, I was required to command, supervise and manage hundreds of young men and women. These experiences have enabled me to become a very good judge of people and their character. I can therefore say without any reservations that Mr. Parvenu is an exceptional individual who would make an outstanding member of California's Citizens Redistricting Commission. His education and work experience will enable him to make immediate and valuable contributions toward resolving the many issues that the Commission will encounter.

In every instance in which I have had an opportunity to observe Mr. Parvenu, whether socially or at his work, he has shown himself to be a dependable, conscientious and courteous individual. He is totally dedicated to work and takes great care in his appearance and the performance of his job. He has great communication skills and is able to convey his care and concern for others in a very effective manner.

In summary, I believe that Mr. Parvenu is an individual of exceptional character and abilities and that he would make an outstanding member of your Redistricting Commission. I hope that you will give serious consideration to selecting Mr. Parvenu and the experience and many talents that he would bring to the position.

Sincerely,

12/12/2010
