Subject: Redistricting Commission Slate of 6 Final Candidates

Dear Bureau of State Auditors,

Please accept this note as a congratulatory note on a process that could have been easily politicized by all sides of the political spectrum. I've been observing this process and have found it surprisingly transparent and securing a board of commissioners, with this proposed slate, that reflects our great state of California. I've been impressed with the Commission and State Auditor's commitment to developing and implementing a fair and clean process. I want to thank the current Redistricting Commission for giving the final selection of the 6 commissioners such careful consideration. While I often site or reference dysfunction in public processes, I am really glad to see that this process netted a representative commission made to reflect all of us Californians. Congratulations Redistricting Commissioners- your slate of the additional commissioners is one of which we can all be proud.

Thank you kindly,
Alma
