

California Partnership for the San Joaquin Valley

For Immediate Release

---

January 25, 2010

Contact:

Pete Weber, Board Member
California Partnership for the San Joaquin Valley
peterweber@sbcglobal.net
559.908.3454

Citizens Redistricting Commission Forum February 4, 2010 • 10:30 am to Noon

WHAT:

An informational forum for San Joaquin Valley residents interested in serving on the 14-seat Citizens Redistricting Commission that will draw district boundaries for the state Senate, Assembly, and Board of Equalization. Applications from interested candidates have to be submitted by February 12.

HOST:

The California Partnership for the San Joaquin Valley

PRESENTERS:

Margarita Fernandez, California State Auditor's Office
Caroline Vance, California Forward

WHO:

All members of the public are invited. The program content will be aimed principally at San Joaquin Valley residents interested in serving on the Commission.

WHEN:

Thursday, February 4, 10:30 a.m. to noon

WHERE:

The San Joaquin Valley Air Pollution Control District has graciously made available its video conferencing facilities to make participation easier for residents from throughout the San Joaquin Valley. To participate in the forum via video conference, please visit one of these three Valley Air Pollution Control District locations:

- 4800 Enterprise Way, Modesto
- 1990 E. Gettysburg Avenue, Fresno
- 34946 Flyover Court, Bakersfield

-More-

For Immediate Release: Citizens Redistricting Commission
January 26, 2010

Pre-Read

For information on the selection process for Commission Members, go to www.wedrawthelines.ca.gov

The Citizens Redistricting Commission will be doing vitally important civic work that will have lasting impacts on the future of the State of California. Therefore, it is important that the San Joaquin Valley is well represented on the Commission, and the best way to ensure that is to field a pool of highly qualified candidates from the Valley. We look forward to seeing you at the forum.

###