

DISCLOSURE POLICY FOR HIRING
CITIZENS REDISTRICTING COMMISSION

Whenever a Commissioner is personally acquainted with, or has personal knowledge regarding any person or firm seeking to perform services of any type for the Commission, whether or not for compensation, the Commissioner shall advise the Commission of the relationship about the individual or firm. In the event a financial relationship exists, the Commission shall abstain from voting. Such disclosure shall occur prior to Commission's consideration of any person or entity seeking to perform services of any type for the Commission.
