Please do not make any changes to our district that would subject moderate and conservative Santa Cruz County residents to the extremism of the people in North County including the UCSC students. Sam Blakeslee speaks for mid and south Santa Cruz County and should be allowed to continue to represent our views. We are all tired of the public employee union driven Democrats in this state and you need look no further then the mess that the pension system is in to confirm the problems. It is very hard to support more taxes when I see fire fighters (personal friends included) earning $195K salaries and virtually matching pensions while the average wage earner only gets about $40K per year. The current representation is just what it should be so please don't be misled by north Santa Cruz County extremists.

Respectfully,

CHARLES H. BRUFFEY, MHA
