
Subject: Redistricting

Date: Saturday, May 21, 2011 6:54 PM

From: John Dorr <[REDACTED]>

To: <[REDACTED]>

Conversation: Redistricting

Dear Sir,

Since San Clemente and San Juan Capistrano are in Orange County, are listed in the phone book as "South Orange County" along with Dana Point, Mission Viejo, Laguna Beach, etc. and share city boundaries with other Orange County cities, we can see no reason for them to be thrown in with a San Diego County district.

Additionally, Camp Pendleton serves as a huge "moat", further separating these cities from San Diego County influence.

Both San Clemente and San Juan Capistrano should be in a district serving Orange County. Just ask AT&T!!

Regards,

John Dorr
Laguna Beach