Subject: Drawing districts with commonality

Message Body:

I believe your approach is the correct manner to address the issue of re-drawing districts that have common regional interests.

Additionally, that there are a minimum of "safe districts" for either party. This re-infranchises those of us in the middle; either moderately conservative or moderately liberal; who have previously marginalized.

Thank you for your hard work. Stick to your principles without regard to the political fallout.

Yours truly
John H. Paulsen
