I am strongly in favor of adopting the CCAG redistricting map, which divides the area fairly along natural geographic and urban/suburban lines. In particular, these changes should be adopted:

- 1) Make Oakland/East Bay/Richmond Hills the dividing line between urban and suburban areas.
- 2) Move these towns into the COCO District:

San Ramon

Dublin

Pleasanton

Livermore

Sunol

Non-CDP areas

Thank you.

Message Body:

The East Bay Hills divide Alameda County and in general the East Bay Hills in income, ethnic background, and social attitudes are not in line with those to the west of Alameda County. We should not be included with them. Our values are more in line with those to the east of us, in San Joaquin County.

Thank you for your consideration.
