Subject: proposed redistrict map

Message Body:

Including SHASTA COUNTY in a district with coastal counties from Del Norte down to the Bay area is SENSELESS. The major issues of industry, economy, employment, leisure, etc. are much more closely related to those of the northern central valley communities than that of the coast. It should be noted that the citizens of Shasta county can and do travel to Oregon, Sacramento and even the Bay Area much easier than the 3-4 hour drive through the windy and dangerous routes over the mountains to reach the ocean. The current map proposal is ridiculous as SHASTA COUNTY'S commonalities with the coastal region is nil.

Thank you for your consideration,
Laura Barnett

I am a registered voter and a property owner in Shasta County, California. I do not want Shasta County redistricted to be grouped the counties on the coast. If I need to do anything else to make my voice heard, please contact me immediately. My email is [REDACTED].

Thank you.

Shasta County (Shingletown in particular) is a part of the I-5 corridor community and we DO NOT want to be part of the coast. We have NOTHING in common with them and our representation will be diminished if we are put in the coastal district.

Representation in Eastern Shasta County is overlooked most often and shoving us with the coastal district is just WRONG!!!!

Our concerns do not align with the coast. It looks as if we have a commission playing politics. When this state goes broke and there is no money to do anything, I'm sure there will be a big shift in government and maybe then we'll start being smart. What I see here is not smart. I am so disappointed in CA government. This map shows liberal bias.
