Subject: Cong District 22Message Body:

Regarding Congressional District 22. I used to be able to vote with the rest of my neighbors in the county. Now I'm lumped in with the outskirts of Bakersfield (AGAIN). I appreciate how tough a job this must be & how much "help" you must be receiving from everywhere but these Congressional districts look just as Gerrymandered as before. What's wrong with simple geometry? I don't have too many 10 year blocks of time to wait to join my neighbors like I always did before the Last time when they put us with Kern Co. I live in SLO co. I've passed through Kern once or twice on my way somewhere but now my vote for Congress is meaningless. And I get no representation either. This salamander is wrong. I'm sure the Pre-2000 districts were screwy too, but they at least let us vote with our own county. I appreciate your work but I think District 22 is just plain Wrong!
