10:00 AM Connie: I am on a mission to make it to Claremont! Will send draft of accomplishments today

10:01 AM me: YEAH!!! I am sooo sorry to hear how sick you've been.

Please continue to take it easy and mend, but I am excited that you might be there 10:02 AM We REALLY need to connect prior to the meeting if you believe you are going to make it. I hope to have the agenda finished within the next hour and then to dan and complete by 1pm. I have patients from 1 to 7 today. Could we chat tonight do you think?

10:03 AM Connie: Yes definitely. I am still weak but exponentially better than I was before. Call me anytime after 8; I will be looking for your call.

10:04 AM me: Thanks, and thanks for your help. :)

10:05 AM Connie: No worries! That's my job...

12:14 PM Cynthia: You online?

12:15 PM ready for your interview?

me: for a couple seconds. I need to call that Jost regarding his request. Have you spoken to him yet? Hi BTW :)

Cynthia: he's going to call me at 12:30pm

me: I am SOOOO busy, Mondays are my worst lol

Awwww, well then I guess I should call him after that!

12:16 PM Cynthia: I'll try to answer most of the questions and brief you me: But you are a hard act to follow

Cynthia: heehee

me: Not fair, I have to follow you as chair and as interview....I'm gonna get a reputation lol

Cynthia: we need to be consistent...I thought you did great!

12:17 PM me: :) Thanks. Sounds good, I will wait for a heads up from you and then call him after. My lunch break is 12:30 to 2:30.

Cynthia: i'll give connie the tip about friendly amendments too...ok me: Thanks!! I asked Miller to do a email to all with some RROO training

Cynthia: altho I wanted to wish everyone happy Chinese new year :-(

12:18 PM me: To help out with better management

Cynthia: yes...

me: hahahaha, I was in chinatown (LA) for it last night. My ears are still ringing, they def know how to celebrate 12:19 PM OK, Cyn, I gotta go clear out my patients. Good luck with JOST!!

Cynthia: Chinese invented gunpowder!

ok, later

me: HAHAHAAAA!

Who invented ear plugs?

Cynthia: :-D

3:52 PM me: Cyn, is it not possible to 'friend' our facebook account?

3:53 PM I couldn't find a way to do that....just an option to 'like' it

Cynthia: I think we don't want friends to put stuff on our wall...yet mebbe if we convert it to a public comment channel later me: I don't know what kind of friends you have but.....

lol

Cynthia: :-D

3:54 PM me: Thank you :) hope your week is well!

Cynthia: glad for the slowdown. slept 10 hours on Saturday night!

3:55 PM me: woo hoo! keep it up. I think I would sleep better if I were sleeping in a hot little blue porsche

Cynthia: someone from Facebook is going to help us make the most of it ha ha me: oh cool, alright. I'll stand by. Have a great day

3:56 PM Cynthia: hey, fill in the media report Google doc we were just sent...

me: I did

I copied you

as usual...lol

Cynthia: :-D

me: I did have a question about jodies email though

Cynthia: which one?

3:57 PM me: I never remember us agreeing that ALL taskings to staff flow through the chair. I don't necessarily have an issue with it, but there are lots of side issues we work with staff and need to be able to speak with them directly

Cynthia: yeah, just ignore that all agenda-related stuff should go through the chair

3:58 PM

me: As I recall, we did agree that staff and crc would be 24hr responsive to better facilitate things. But not that all staff comm goes through chair

Cynthia: you wanna correct her ;-) me: LoL! That was my plan anyway...but good to hear it from you. Yes, agenda stuff for sure :)

3:59 PM LOL...HAHAHAHA No, I'm trying to put YOU up to it

LOL

Cynthia: i've already had a couple of conversations with her me: Cool, at least I didn't miss anything.

Cynthia: i think she's trying avoid having the staff being pulled in 14 different directions...

4:00 PM but she can't realistically deal with every little thing me: I'm happy to say I haven't. I can't wait to see your comcast piece....I tried to find it on my firends ondemand...but wasnt there

Cynthia: Dan has been good about cc'ing Jodie if he needs to

Oh, I forgot about that...lemme add that me: Show off!

Cynthia: I need to look for it too

4:01 PM if you have suggestions for Rob in Socal...let him know me: Alright, I gotta run. Yeah, I've been working on recruiting video support. I told him I would help him with that last week.

Have a great day!!!!

Cynthia: U too!

5:35 PM I just saw the new suspense of tonight for 'all other districts'. So that might eat into the time I planned for OC

4:15 PM Christina: The public comments on the website are not up to date. We've had to pull staff off of posting to work on getting individual, redacted pdf's over to Q2. I don't expect to be able to start posting public comments on the website until Wednesday, July 6.

4:16 PM The comments in your [REDACTED] account are up to date.

1:46 PM me: My understanding was that if someone else can draw the area more compact and respect the VRA requirements than that makes our maps open to litigation? Is that accurate?

1:52 PM Angelo: The courts will give some leeway if there are other traditional redistricting factors that the redistricting body might be taking into account. Since there may be several viable options, the courts typically won't second guess the choice unless it doesn't comply with Gingles.

for Legal Services

Citizens Redistricting Commission
Voting Rights Act Counsel

Citizens Redistricting Commission
1130 K Street, Suite 101
Sacramento, CA 95814
Issued February 28, 2011

Request for Information
Citizens Redistricting Commission
Voting Rights Act Counsel
(This is not a competitive bid)

SECTION I - Introduction

As required by the Voters First Act and the Voters First Act for Congress (Collectively the “Voters First Act”), the Citizens Redistricting Commission (the “Commission”) is charged with the responsibility, in the year following the year in which the national census is taken under the direction of Congress at the beginning of each decade, to adjust the boundary lines of the Congressional, State Senatorial, Assembly, and Board of Equalization districts (also known as “Redistricting” or “Redistricting Activities”) in conformance with the standards and process set forth in Section 2 of Article XXI of the California Constitution.

SECTION II – Purpose of this Request for Information

The Citizens Redistricting Commission (“CRC”) is seeking Statements of Qualifications (“SOQ”) from attorneys, including law firms and other entities to provide legal services to assist the Commission with its responsibilities pursuant to the Voters First Act.

The SOQ will be used by the Commission to select counsel to advise specifically on Voting Rights Act matters. An applicant may apply to provide such services either as an independent contractor or as an employee of the Commission, by responding to this Request for Information (“RFI”) in the manner described in Section III. (Any applicant wishing to apply as an employee should also review the job posting on the Commission’s website, at www.wedrawthelines.ca.gov)

SECTION III – Submission Requirements, Due Date and Time

Statements of Qualifications must be received by 5:00 p.m. on March 10, 2011.

The Statement of Qualifications should be addressed to:

Kirk E. Miller
Chief Counsel
Citizens Redistricting Commission
1130 K Street, Suite 101
Sacramento, CA 95814

Questions Pertaining to this Request for Information

Requests for clarification or interpretation related to the requested information must be submitted in writing by March 10, 2011 to the attention of Kirk E. Miller, Chief Counsel, at the address listed above, or by email to [REDACTED]

Evaluation Process

The Commission's Legal Advisory Committee (the "Committee") will review all SOQs submitted, at a publicly noticed meeting in Sacramento, California, on March 15, 2011. Following this initial review of the SOQs, the Committee will invite those applicants deemed in the Committee's discretion most qualified, to interview with the Committee at a publicly noticed meeting in Sacramento, California on March 17, 2011. The Committee will make a recommendation on the hiring or retention of one or more applicants to the full Commission at a public meeting on March 18, 2011. Any applicant recommended by the Committee to the full Commission must also be available to meet with the Commission on March 18, 2011. (During these meetings, members of the public will have an opportunity to comment.)

Documents Submitted

Preparation and submission of the SOQ will be at no cost or obligation to the Commission. All materials submitted will become the property of the Commission and will not be returned. The materials submitted are not confidential, will be made available to members of the public attending the meetings referenced above, and will be placed on the CRC website.

Copies Required

Applicants must send all materials by email to [REDACTED] and provide 15 copies to the address above.

SECTION IV – General Information

Terms and Conditions

Any attorney, law firm or legal entity selected by the Commission will be required to enter into a Legal Services Agreement for the work described in this RFI. It is anticipated that work will begin as soon as practicable following the selection process and continue through approximately August 15, 2011.

The CRC may also choose to select more than one lawyer or law firm to perform the legal services described herein.

Travel and Per Diem Expenses

All travel and per diem rates shall be limited to rates published by the Department of Personnel Administration (DPA). Refer to the DPA website at www.dpa.ca.gov for rates pertaining to Method of Travel, Meals and Incidentals, Lodging Reimbursement and Personal Vehicle Mileage Reimbursement.

SECTION V – Statement of Work and Experience

The required legal services may include, but will not be limited to, legal support to the Commission, staff and consultants through approximately August 15, 2011, regarding the Redistricting process, based upon the 2010 census. This may include, but is not limited to, review of documents, including proposed district maps, review and preparation of legal memoranda related to applicable legal issues, advice to the Commission, Commission staff and consultants, and attendance from time to time at Commission meetings throughout the state.

Applicants must have demonstrated expertise in the federal Voting Rights Act. In addition, experience with the California Elections Code, the Voters First Act, the Bagley-Keene Act and relevant Federal and State case law will be considered.

The Commission is not seeking proposals for litigation counsel; however, those responding to this Request for Information (RFI) should provide a description of their prior redistricting litigation experience as part of the response.

Each attorney or law firm or other entity shall demonstrate qualifications to perform legal services in each of the areas described below:

1. Perform all normal and customary duties required of special redistricting counsel in connection with legal issues related to Redistricting Activities.
2. Advise the Commission, Commission staff and consultants as to procedures, legality of documents, policy concerns, and legal implications concerning the Redistricting Activities, and specifically work with Commission, Commission staff and consultants with respect to legal issues in connection with drawing new district boundaries.
3. Advise the Commission, Commission staff and consultants regarding the requirements of State and Federal laws relevant to Redistricting Activities, and in particular demonstrate expertise and experience with Section 2 and Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act, including but not limited to issues with respect to the Shaw v. Reno 509 U.S. 630 (1993) and Miller v. Johnson 515 U.S. 900 (1995) line of cases and appropriate population analysis in “majority/minority districts.”
4. Advise the Commission, Commission staff and consultants of litigation risks associated with Redistricting Activities and approaches to limit such risks.

5. Attend various Commission public meetings and hearings as requested by the Commission or Commission staff.

The attorney or firm selected may be required to submit written interim and final reports and summaries as requested by the Commission or Chief Counsel.

SECTION VI – Submission Format

Attorneys, law firms and other entities qualified and interested in performing the legal services as described herein are asked to submit the following information formatted into Sections 1-4 as requested below. Responses should not exceed 15 pages, not including resumes and client lists.

1. Personnel

In the case of a law firm or other entity, identify the lead lawyer and other lawyers, if any, who will be assigned to the work and the anticipated percentage of time for each. Also please attach a resume for each lawyer.

2. Attorney/Firm General Description

If the Statement of Qualifications is submitted by a law firm or other entity, provide a general description of the firm. All applicants should describe their overall approach to handling of Redistricting matters.

3. Experience

- List significant experience in Redistricting Activities, as described in Section V, as to each of the attorneys listed above. The list should include:
  - (a) The names of the public entities or private parties represented in Redistricting matters, including experience representing boards or commissions in connection with this work;
  - (b) The principal legal issues presented in each matter handled by the attorney, law firm or entity.
  - (c) Experience with Section 2 and Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act and in particular the issues identified above.
  - (d) The outcome of prior redistricting representations --e.g., resolved without litigation, negotiated settlement, or trial.

- A summary of how this experience prepares the attorney and/or law firm to perform the services sought by this RFI.

4. Conflicts of Interest

Please disclose any financial, business, professional, lobbying or other relationship that presents a potential conflict as described in California Government Code Section 8252, as well as any litigation matter in which the applicant is adverse to any entity of California state government.

Work relating to Redistricting or other work for current or prior clients during the past 10 years that, even if such work has concluded, could present the appearance of a conflict in connection with the representation of the CRC for Redistricting Activities. For example, if the attorney or law firm either presently, or has in the past represented a political party or an interest group funded by or working on behalf of a political party, such work must be disclosed and the implications of the current or prior representation for this assignment must be described.

SECTION VII – Fee Arrangements

The Commission requests all applicants to provide a fee estimate based on the description of the work contained in this Request for Information. It is the Commission's preference to contract for the legal services described herein – exclusive of litigation and attendance at public meetings – on a fixed fee rather than an hourly basis, assuming the assignment will continue through August 15, 2011. (The Commission recognizes that it is not presently possible to state the number of meetings at which counsel will need to be present, and as such requests an estimate of such fees on a per meeting basis.) Please describe your willingness to contract in this manner and how you would structure such a proposal. In the alternative, the Commission will also consider an hourly fee estimate, as well as the option to work for the Commission as a salaried employee.
