

Applicant's Clarification of the Report on Information Collected Concerning Applicant

After reviewing the respective Report on Information Collected Concerning Applicant, the Applicant wanted to clarify the following points:

- The Applicant stated that "Lyon-Martin" is misspelled and that the mission of the Bernal Heights Neighborhood Center should be "...and economic diversity of the Bernal Heights neighborhood...."
- The Applicant stated that the report incorrectly identified Jude Shao as a "Chinese Dissident." After additional research, bureau staff noted that several websites describe Mr. Shoa an American citizen and entrepreneur who was doing business in China and was unjustly imprisoned and that he was released in 2008.
