I live in Scotts Valley, Ca., Santa Cruz County, and am in the 14th. Congressional District. This district is primarily peopled by those who live in the Santa Clara Valley which is far removed from Scotts Valley. We have a mountain range between the 14th. District and the one I we should be in, which is the 17th.

We have absolutely nothing in common with the 14th district and I firmly believe that we are woefully under- represented by being in the 14th district.

If you all would please look on the map of the 14th district you will see how ridiculous it is split. The logical place for us is in the 17th district where we would at least be living in the same county as the 17th district congressman.

Thank you for your consideration and if I can answer any questions, please get in touch.

Herbert L. Fogel
