Subject: Please make redistricting commission nonpartisan
To: votersfirstact@crc.ca.gov

I am concerned with the possible employment of the Rose Institute--a group the LA Times calls a hard right-wing organization--and the possible appointment of a far right-wing attorney to the redistricting commission. (Currently it would seem that Steven Merksamer and Daniel Kolkey are partisan conservatives.)

As a DTS voter, I want this commission to be nonpartisan and fair to voters of all political persuasions. I hope you will see to it that the redistricting process is kept free from unchecked partisan influence from either the left or the right.

Sincerely,

Matt Davidson
