Subject: Please do not hire Republican redistricting experts for a non-partisan effort

Hello Redistricting Committee,

Please do not hire as your experts for redistricting republican partisans (such as Doug Johnson of the Rose Institute). This is bad policy as well as bad politics. Please just do the job yourself without experts. If experts truly need to be hired (which I doubt) then you need to hire at least two, one from each side of the political divide. this way at least a balance could be achieved.

Thank you
