

§ 60822. Political Party

“Political party” means a political party that is operating in California by making expenditures to support candidates for elective public office in the state or is recognized by the Secretary of State as a qualified political party as defined in section 5100 of the Elections Code.

[Note: Authority cited: Section 8546, Government Code. Reference: Section 8252, Government Code.]