

April 27, 2011

Redistricting Commissioners,

After becoming aware of the redistricting process, I want to voice my opinion. I am a Simi Valley resident and a member of various community organizations. I see firsthand how the cities of Moorpark and Simi Valley work together. Our cities are virtually one area geographically and our interests for them largely coincide. I think it's important to keep them together in one district.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Louise Moriarty