

From: Victoria K. Coots [REDACTED]
Subject: Redistricting

Message Body:

It is imperative the district lines are drawn in such a manner as to create true representation of We the People, and not to guarantee either party's election to office. By distorting the lines to this latter purpose, we move further away from our founding principles and values, which are to promote honest elections and true representation of all U.S. citizens.