

From: Chris Brown [REDACTED]
Subject: Redistricting

Message Body:

My Idea is to use natural boundries such as rivers, mountains or geographical areas to draw lines, and/or man made ones like railroad tracks and highways to draw the lines. Population has to be considered, of course. DO NOT use voting block boundries to favor one political party or another such as what is used now.