

Our family asks that you maintain the One Man, One Vote law when determining redistricting in California. Anything other than that is cheating the voters.