Subject: Keep Humboldt Coastal

Message Body:

Some folks seem to think we have more in common with Central Valley Farmers than we do with Bodega Bay fisherman, just because Redding is "farther north" than Sonoma County does not make it a good fit for us to be in THEIR district.

Here's what Central Valley farmers think of our water rights in regards to fishing:

"Valley irrigation districts filed a lawsuit to stop the first full commercial salmon fishing season off the California coast in years."
