Message Body:

Third parties must be taken into account when drawing the lines for legislative districts, the two major parties do not have a right for constant reelection due to a majority status. Further, the Congressional districts of Brad Sherman and Howard Berman must be drawn as to give a boost to the candidacy of a Latino. The last time they were drawn was a clear conflict of interest because Howard Berman was paid a million dollars to prevent a Latino challenge to his career and also benefited Brad Sherman by preventing a Latino majority in his district. This must be prevented at all costs.
