
Subject: First District Redistricting

Date: Friday, May 20, 2011 11:14 AM

From: Cherri Woolbert <[REDACTED]>

To: <[REDACTED]>

Conversation: First District Redistricting

I am strongly opposed to an east – west redistricting of the first district. The best interest of coastal counties is preserving adequate river flows to protect our fisheries for commercial enterprises and tourists as well as the health of the environment. Inland counties' vital interest is supplying industrial users with water without regard for those downstream. Coastal counties have very different vital interests than inland counties and it is impossible for one representative to represent such opposing interests.