

mhtmlmain:

Coachella Valley is a separate and distinct community of interest as compared to Imperial Valley. Coachella is primarily a retirement and tourist oriented community. Imperial Valley is agricultural with environmental problems from the New River and Salton Sea, and shares a border with Mexico and all that entails. If the two communities are merged into a district, I'm afraid Coachella would get the short end of representation.

Thank you

George K Czanstke

mhtmlmain: