Hello commission,

I have just become aware of this effort and thank you so much for doing this. I live in the city of Chatsworth almost on the border of Porter Ranch and have lived in the same house since my birth. I went to private elementary school in Canoga Park and private high school in North Hills. I do feel a strong connection with the cities of Chatsworth, Canoga Park and Porter Ranch. I also feel that they have many similarities and should be in a district together. However, it is the cities of North Hills and the like that have no commonalities with my city. I feel more of a relation to the cities over the surrounding mountains than with my neighboring cities in the San Fernando Valley. The cities of Santa Clarita, Thousand Oaks, and Simi Valley share so much more in common with Canoga Park, Chatsworth and Porter Ranch. And above all, it is these cities that connect Thousand Oaks and Simi Valley to the city of Santa Clarita. Making a district of these cities would allow for cities that are geographically connected and united in commonalities. Thank you.
