

Subject: RedistrictingDate: Saturday, May 21, 2011 9:47 PMFrom: Gordon Stedman <[REDACTED]>To: <[REDACTED]>Conversation: Redistricting

My first choice is for entire counties to stand alone. If that is not possible because of population then two or more adjacent counties. Finally if a county must be split then the district should be as geometrically concise ie, a circle, square, as possible. I do not want to see any district with "arms" sticking out. I would rather see large population counties with an extra district then with a small piece of another county.

Gordon R. Stedman
[REDACTED]

Sonoma County resident for 63 years