Subject: Maps released 6/10

Message Body:

WHy are the cities of Sunnyvale & Santa Clara not consistently shown on the maps? THis makes it impossible for residents to figure out how they will be affected. Especially for Santa Clara, which has been a divided city since the last redraw.

Sincerely, Pat Pierce

To California Citizens Redistricting Commission

The West Valley deserves State Assembly and Congressional Districts that are wholly contained in the West Valley and don't cross over into the East Valley. The West Valley ends at the Los Angeles County line and includes the Conejo Valley. I expect the Commission to be fair with this matter.
