Subject: Apparently voting history means nothing

Message Body:

Still unable to open your maps I did learn after an extensive web search what I feared.

Although Butte County rejected Wally Herger as did neighboring counties in CA-02 in the last congressional election it appears we are being compelled to remain in his district. Therefore one can only conclude that the will of the people as reflected by their votes is absolutely meaningless the the CRC and, bluntly, there is some quid pro quo at work within a body that supposedly is non-partisan.
