Commissioners --

Thank you for all your hard work, and more than that, your ability to listen and respond to citizen input on crucial aspects of the redistricting. It is impossible to 100% satisfy all parties about all things, barring a miracle, nor can I say that my articulation of my counties needs was 100% met. But that is okay -- I believe they were met as well as is humanly, pragmatically possible. They say that perfection is for amateurs -- the pros do their best to make magic happen and live with the results, day after day. You guys started as amateur volunteers -- now you've become seasoned pros. Good job!

P.S. Especial big shout out to Stan Forbes, for understanding his friends and neighbors love him even when we have to critique the commission ...
