Good afternoon Mr. Atkins,

Thank you for submitting your comments to the Citizens Redistricting Commission.

Your email has been forwarded to the Commissioners and will be posted on our website under the public comments section.

The Citizens Redistricting Commission does not have the authority to change the number of districts drawn in California. Any change to the number of districts would have to occur through either the legislative process or through the courts. You can learn more about the Commission and its responsibilities by visiting our Laws and Regulations page (http://wedrawthelines.ca.gov/regulation_archive.html) or by reading the Voter's First Act, the constitutional language creating and governing the Commission: http://wedrawthelines.ca.gov/downloads/voters_first_act.pdf

Sincerely,

Christina Shupe

Hello,

I would like to invite you to Redding Ca to have a discussion on more representation. we need a representatives for every county. For Us in the north state we have no say on any legislation that is passed in Sacramento, we have a fair grievance about representation. I would like to see if you could help push legislation to add more representation . do you have the authority to recommend for more representatives? please come and visit and hear our concerns about lack of representation. Thank you for helping the Citizens of this great state of California. Best Regards, Karl K. Atkins
