Subject: Congressional District Map

Message Body:

I'm a recently registered voter in California's 23rd congressional district, in the town of Three Rivers, CA. I was surprised to find that my town is included in the 23rd district as opposed to the 22nd. Visalia is only a 30 minute drive from our community, while Bakersfield is over an hour and a half away. In fact, in order to get to the office of my representative, I have to drive through the 22nd district anyway. This isn't just a logistical problem. Our community is tied to Visalia economically and physically via the Kaweah River. As far as I can tell, we have no real ties to Bakersfield. In the next iteration of redistricting, I think this should be addressed by the commission.
