

Asian Health Services | FACT SHEET 2020

Healthcare for All. Advocacy for the Underserved.

Asian Health Services (AHS) is a community health center that provides primary, dental and behavioral health services to the medically-underserved families of Oakland and surrounding communities in 14 different languages. As a nationally recognized community health center model, AHS stands at the forefront of quality and innovation. We address the unique cultural beliefs, language needs, attitudes and values of our patients. We provide healthcare for all and advocacy for the underserved.
