Subject: NMF Redistricting Task Force Recommendations Report

Good evening,

I hope you are well. I'm writing to follow-up on the outcomes of the Redistricting Task Force. As you may recall, our last meeting was this Monday in the late afternoon. Thanks for participating in and contributing to the task force. Some of the recommendations that emerged are transformative. Some recommendations provided further clarification and specificity on existing approaches in New Mexico. Other recommendations, upon careful reflection and deliberation, embraced the status quo. Together they provide a roadmap for our legislators to infuse greater clarity, transparency, and public confidence in the process.

In the meantime, I hope you take a moment, grab a cup of tea or coffee, take some time to read the report, and give pause for gratitude that when we come together from across NM we do inspiring things! If you have questions or comments please let us know.

We wish you and yours safe, loving, and happy Holidays,

Lilly and Melanie,
