

California Redistricting Basics

Wedrawthelines.ca.gov

What is Redistricting?

Drawing (and redrawing) the boundaries that determine which voters are represented by each electoral district.

Different Redistricting Efforts

State—Congressional, Board of Equalization, Senate and Assembly.

Counties—58 counties with their own process.

Cities—482 cities with their own process.

School Districts—977 school districts with their own process.

Why Independent Redistricting Matters

- ▶ In 2012, Pennsylvania Democrats received 51% of the votes for congress but won only 5 of its 18 seats.
- ▶ In 2016, Maryland Republicans received 37% of the votes for congress but won only 1 of its 8 congressional seats.
- ▶ In California's five election cycles from 2002 to 2010, only one California congressional seat changed parties, and only two incumbents lost in all 253 races.

Redistricting Factors

- ▶ Census—Every ten years the entire U.S. population is counted, and that data is used to draw new maps to account for population shifts across the states and districts.
- ▶ Reapportionment –The federal reallocation of House seats among the states, done after each national census to ensure seats are held by the states in proportion to the size of their population.
- ▶ Fair Representation—Historically, legislators have drawn maps that allowed them to choose their voters rather than enabling voters to choose their representatives. This former system undermined the concept of fair representation.

Why We Redraw District Maps

- ▶ People are born, die, and move.
- ▶ Communities grow and shrink.
- ▶ Areas where there were once roughly the same number of people become lopsided.
- ▶ Communities change.

History

- ▶ Prior to 2010—Legislators Drew Lines or the Court did if the Legislature failed to carry out this duty properly
- ▶ Proposition 11 (2008)—the Voters FIRST Act/We Draw the Lines
- ▶ Proposition 20 (2010)—Congressional Districts
- ▶ From Census to Redistricting
- ▶ 2010 Redistricting Commission
- ▶ 2020 Redistricting Commission
- ▶ Other States with Independent Commissions—Arizona, Colorado, Idaho, Michigan, Montana and Washington use independent commissions to draw the lines.

Commissioner Selection

- ▶ Commissioner Applications (Over 20,000 applicants)
- ▶ Completed Applications (2,000)
- ▶ Interview/Screening Process (120 applicants)
- ▶ Legislative Strikes (12 strikes each party)
- ▶ Lottery System: First 8
- ▶ Final 6 Selection

6 Things to Consider When Drawing the Lines

2020 CALIFORNIA CITIZENS REDISTRICTING COMMISSION

 Equal Population	 Voting Rights Act
1. Districts must be of equal population to comply with the US Constitution.	2. Districts must comply with the Voting Rights Act to ensure that minorities have an equal opportunity to elect representatives of their choice.
 Contiguity	 Communities of Interest
3. Districts must be contiguous so that all parts of the district are connected to each other.	4. Districts must respect the boundaries of cities, counties, neighborhoods and communities of interest, and minimize their division, to the extent possible.
 Geographically Compact	 Nesting Districts
5. Districts should be geographically compact, that is, have a fairly regular shape.	6. Where practicable each Senate District should be comprised of two complete and adjacent Assembly Districts and Board of Equalization districts shall be composed of 10 complete and adjacent State Senate Districts.

Communities of Interest (COI)

- ▶ Communities of Interest (COI)--A community of interest is a contiguous population which shares common social and/or economic interests that should be included within a single district for purposes of its effective and fair representation. Examples include areas in which the people share similar living standards, use the same transportation facilities, have similar work opportunities, or have access to the same media.
- ▶ How do you define your community?
 - Geographic
 - Boundaries
 - Landmarks

Your Voice

- ▶ Why is it important?
- ▶ Why should you be involved?
- ▶ Your role in the process

Redistricting has been used at times to exclude communities from political power. By fully participating in and monitoring the upcoming redistricting process, historically underrepresented communities will have a better opportunity to elect candidates of their choice and voice their needs and interests.
