

California League of Conservation Voters

Samuel Sukaton (he/they) is Redistricting Coordinator for the California League of Conservation Voters and the CLCV Education Fund.

CLCV believes that clean air and water and healthy people depend on a clean government and a healthy democracy. To that end, Samuel organizes CLCV's work before the California Citizens Redistricting Commission and county and municipal bodies. He worked previously at PICO California Action Fund, Inland Empowerment, and with Senator Bernie Sanders.

Raised in San Bernardino and based in Los Angeles, Samuel holds a BA in history from UCLA.

Since 1972, the California League of Conservation Voters (CLCV) has protected and enhanced the land, air, water, and health of all California communities by electing environmental champions, advancing critical state and federal legislation, and holding policymakers accountable to combating the effects of our catastrophic climate crisis.

We're excited to work with you on building an inclusive democracy and clean energy future where decisions about our economy, environment, and infrastructure are made by our communities.
