

Response to Questions Regarding the Citizens Redistricting Commission's Litigation Counsel Request for Information (RFI), received from Gibson Dunn.

1. May you please confirm the agreement period (i.e., March 2021 through December 2021)?

The RFI has been amended to reflect the anticipated work by the selected applicant to begin as soon as practicable following the selection process and continue through to June 30, 2022 on this contract. If litigation extends beyond June 30, 2022, the contract will have to be extended for the new fiscal year.

2. We understand that (as noted in the RFI), "materials submitted are not confidential, will be made available to members of the public." Relatedly, may you please confirm/clarify the following:
 - a. If we propose 2021 standard rates by timekeeper, with that info also be made available to members of the public?

Yes.

- b. Will we be able to view the rates and/or proposals made by our competitors on your website?

Yes.

3. It seems that your legal services budget for this work is $500k through 8/15/2022 but can be increased if necessary. May you please confirm that is accurate?

Yes, the legal services budget can be increased beyond the amount stated in the RFI.
